Patricia is 5-5, weighs 119 and tapes 35-20-36. Both are Palm Springs girls.

Castro Shakes Up Cabinet on Land Program

HAVANA — UPI — Premier Fidel Castro shook up the Cuban cabinet today in the face of growing opposition to his controversial plan to carve up large Cuban farms.

The bearded revolutionary who overthrew dictator Fulgencio Batista nearly six and a half months ago announced replacements for five ministers, including the minister of agriculture.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT came early this morning at the end of a long cabinet session. It climaxed reports that some of the cabinet ministers had threatened to quit unless the land reform law was modified.

The official announcement gave no indication whether the five outgoing ministers resigned or were fired.

Cattle ranchers, tobacco and sugar growers have fought the land reform law. The United States formally added its voice to their cause Thursday.

IN A NOTE TO THE Cuban government the U. S. State Department expressed "serious concern" that the law failed to provide prompt and adequate compensation to U. S. investors.

The reform law, published June 3, stipulates reduction of all land holdings to 1,000 acres. A number of U. S. sugar companies will be affected.

The U. S. statement said it was sympathetic to the Cuban objective of land redistribution but implied that the way Cuba was doing it would hurt Cuba as well as foreign investors.

TOBACCO FARMERS in Pinar Del Rio Province have threatened open revolution if the government carves up their lands. Cattle growers have launched a fund-raising drive to conduct a publicity campaign against aspects of the land reform law they object to.

'Fun Fair' Planned At Palm Desert

PALM DESERT — Chamber of Commerce officials today mapped plans for this community's third annual Fourth of July "Fun Fair."

Programmed as an "old-fashioned" Independence Day affair, the twice-a-successful community fair offers everything from hot dogs and soda pop to a talent show and fireworks for family holiday recreation.

FAIR CHAIRMAN Ralph Phillips, chamber vice president, said this year's July 4 festivities will again be staged on the grounds of the Shadow Mountain Club, starting at 4 p.m.

Planned and organized by community organization, the fair features game and food booths, an

PAGAENT WINNER PRIZES LISTED

One of the largest and most impressive arrays of prizes ever assembled for a Miss Palm Springs Beauty Pageant, will go to winners of the Chi Chi-Desert Sun sponsored Miss Palm Springs contest.

To be held next Tuesday on stage in the Chi Chi Starlite Room, the prizes already total several hundreds of dollars, and are growing daily.

WINNERS OF THE sixth annual contest will all receive some gifts, and for the girl who wins the title of Miss Palm Springs are gifts beyond a young woman's highest hopes.

Her crown, designed by Jewels by Alchian, will become hers to wear later as a tiara; her regal bouquet will be furnished by the Village Flower Shop, which will also supply bouquets for the second and third place winners and from J. W. Robinson's, a beautiful wrist watch.

For the first, second and third place winners, a beautiful gift to each from Irwin Schuman of the Chi Chi, co-sponsor of the contest. Adrian Rosen of Adrian's will give the second third and fourth girls a beautiful tiara, and from the William F. Anderson Studio, an 11 x 14 glamour portrait, to the winning candidate.

OTHER PRIZES for the winner will include a three-day stay at the Catalina Hotel on Santa Catalina, courtesy of Max Grone, a Samsonite train case from Palm Springs Department and Hardware Store; a complete beauty treatment by Petticoat Lane Beauty Parlor; and five lessons in stage presentation by Arthur Murray Studio, to help her capture the Miss California crown.

In wearing apparel, Miss Palm Springs will receive — lingerie ($25 gift certificate) by Braselli; high style shoes from Sam Bork Original Shoes; a dress ($25 gift certificate) from George Beebe, Jr.; a cocktail dress or sports outfit ($35 gift certificate) compliments of Faye Renee; and from Waltah Clarke's Hawaiian Shop an original Hawaiian beach hat.

AND MORE PRIZES are being obtained daily, with a special gift for each contestant to be presented by the Miss Palm Springs co-sponsors — Chi Chi and The Desert Sun.

Applications will be accepted for contestants until 6 p.m., Saturday, at The Desert Sun Office at 174 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Authorities Hope to Find Bomber Before New Try

BOSTON — A mad bomber whose ingeniously contrived time bomb blasted apart a rapid transit station and injured 38 persons was sought here today by a team of crack detectives.

More than a score of men were assigned to the investigation in an urgent effort to track down the maniac before he could strike again. An escaped mental patient with a record of previous bombing attempts was considered a prime suspect.

THREE PERSONS were critically injured in the blast late Thursday in the crowded North End District. Of the three, only an 81-year-old man, Abraham Roberts, was considered early today to be in imminent danger of dying. He was struck in the neck by flying metal.

Police ballistic experts swarmed over the area until late Thursday night picking up bits of the bomb. They said the person who planted it "knew his business." The explosive force was said to be about equal to a World War II 100-pound aerial bomb.

THE STATION IS about 20 feet above the ground on the Metropolitan Transit Authority's elevated tracks. The platform is outside the sheltered waiting room.

Strike Okehed By Policy Group

NEW YORK — UPI — The steel union's International Wage Policy Committee today authorized the union's officers "to take whatever steps they deem necessary" to deal with the contract deadlock.

Police ballistic experts swarmed over the area until late Thursday night picking up bits of the bomb. They said the person

Air Defense Master Plan Is Unveiled

Anti-Missile Missile Program Speedup Told by McElroy

WASHINGTON — UPI — Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy today unveiled a new air defense master plan calling for a $1,500,000,000 cutback in defense against manned bombers, but speeding development of anti-missile missiles.

McElroy outlined the new program for the Senate Armed Services Committee behind closed doors. Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) later gave newsmen an account of his testimony.

RUSSELL SAID that both anti-aircraft missiles involved in the current Army-Air Force feud, the Army's Nike-Hercules and the Air Force Bomarc, would be cut back. The Bomarc would take somewhat bigger cuts, at least in the immediate future.

Russell and Sen. John C. Stennis (D-Miss.) said McElroy estimated that savings resulting from these cutbacks at $1,500,000,000 over the next five years before these weapons are eliminated from the defense blueprint in 1965.

BUT THE ARMY'S Nike-Zeus anti-missile missile will be speeded by spending 157 million dollars for research and development in the fiscal year starting July 1.

The Nike-Zeus was described by Russell as the "hope for the future" in defending the nation against ballistic missiles.

Russell commented that the air defense plan "continues to involve a mix of the two missile systems." He said he generally approved of retaining both the Nike-Hercules and the Bomarc but would personally have preferred deeper cuts.

Matsu Islands Shelled Today

TAIPEI, Formosa — UPI — Red Chinese shore batteries and a Communist ship shelled one of the Nationalist offshore islands in the Matsu complex today, the Nationalist Defense Ministry announced.

Rear Adm. Liu Hsiang-tu, defense ministry spokesman, said land-based guns and a three-masted junk poured more than 430 shells onto tiny Kaotung Island.

NEW VILLAGE HEADQUARTERS for the Riverside County Boy Scout Council's capital fund drive, located at 440 North Palm Canyon Drive, were opened this week by some of the local drive leaders, left to right, Ed McCoubrey, Harold Hicks and Carl Lykken. All three are taking a prominent part in a county wide campaign to raise $197,000 to expand and modernize camp facilities for county Boy Scouts. Scout officials pointed out the drive is not part of the annual United Fund campaign which provides funds for regular scout operations, but is solely intended to provide financing for badly needed camp facilities. McCoubrey is vice president of the council's executive committee, Hicks is a member of its citizen's advisory committee, and Lykken is consultant to the executive committee. (Desert Sun Photo).

COUNCIL, NEW CAR DEALERS ASK MOTOR VEHICLE OFFICE

A City Council resolution calling for creation of a Palm Springs DMV office is today on its way to the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

At the same time, the Palm Springs New Car Dealers Association has appealed to state legislators for support of proposals for a local DMV agency.

CITY OFFICIALS hope to see affirmative action taken on their resolution within the next one to three years.

The City Council unanimously endorsed their resolution here Wednesday night in the wake of a campaign launched by the Chamber of Commerce and Village auto dealers.

City officials agree that Palm Springs has enough motorists and auto purchasers using DMV services to require a local office.

HOWEVER, CITY Attorney Jerry Bunker said today that there is no likelihood that the proposed Village office would be included in the DMV's new budget.

Bunker said the city is aiming for inclusion of its proposal in the state department's budget for next year or the year following.

Currently, motorists seeking driver's licenses or auto registration must journey to Indio, or wait for the DMV travelcrew that visits here weekly.

TO SECURE A DMV office here, officials must prove that the agency is at least 20 miles from the nearest DMV station and will serve at least 20,000 citizens in the immediate area.

Bunker said the area from Palm Springs through Desert Hot Springs meets both qualifications. Cathedral City population cannot be included because the community is less than 20 miles from the Indio DMV office.

THE CITY COUNCIL resolution

Lawyer to Fight Attempt to Have Long Committed

GALVESTON, Tex. — Theo Cangelosi, a prominent Louisiana lawyer, indicated today he will fight the attempt of Gov. Earl Long's family to have Long declared insane and will offer proof he was kidnapped.

Cangelosi did not use the specific term "kidnaping." He said he would base his challenge of Texas jurisdiction on proof Long was forced "against his will" to fly to Texas.

Cangelosi, chairman of the Louisiana State University Board of Supervisors and an assistant attorney general in Louisiana, is a friend and legal advisor of Long. He will head a team of attorneys handling the governor's battle to get out of John Sealy Hospital's psychiatric ward.

Long's family had him "knocked out" with sedatives and flown to Galveston after he made two torrid speeches before the Louisiana Legislature.

CHEMIST CLAIMS BEER MAY BE MOST HEALTHFUL DRINK

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — UPI — Beer may be considered the most healthful of all beverages, including milk, a Latin American research chemist said Thursday.

Hernan Perez, Bogota, Colombia, told the Inter-American Food Institute meeting here that beer provides quick caloric energy and is rich in carbohydrates, mineral salts and vitamins. He said the inclusion of beer in the diet "must be only considered beneficial in all cases—for for healthy or for ailing people."

Herter Asks Secret Meet For Monday

Advisability of Continuing Talks Is Questioned

GENEVA — UPI — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko publicly disclaimed any new ultimatum on Berlin today, but he said the "Soviet Union never would sign any document which would mean the perpetuation of the occupation regime in West Berlin."

As the Foreign Ministers' Conference moved toward its sixth week, Gromyko's statement left the Soviet position unchanged and led Western ministers to question the advisability of continuing the talks, now on a day to day basis.

BUT THEY WILL continue at least through Monday because Secretary of State Christian Herter has asked for another secret session then.

Gromyko said the proposals he put forward formally two days ago were a "statement of position" which might become a basis for discussion to solve the Berlin and German issues.

However, the West had regarded them as a threat or ultimatum and had threatened to break off the talks here as hopeless unless he changed.

THERE WAS NOTHING conciliatory in Gromyko's speech today, except his claim that he was not threatening, since he once again reaffirmed the whole Russian package which has been rejected by the West.

But the British quickly grasped at his words as a withdrawal of the ultimatum he had laid down.

Gromyko also objected to the first time publicly here to Western warnings that if no agreement is reached by the foreign ministers there will be no summit conference.

"The Soviet government considers that the summit conference should not be made a subject of bargaining," he said.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER almost two weeks ago reiterated that he would not go to a summit meeting unless some real progress is made here. He said then that he had seen no signs of such progress.

Head-on Collision Kills 7; Flames Go 50 Feet in Air

TUSCOLA, Ill. — UPI — A fiery head-on collision that shot flames "50 feet into the air" Thursday night killed seven persons, four of them young girls.

Leon Gale, a Douglas County deputy sheriff, said he was driving about 150 feet away on narrow U. S. 36 three miles east of here when he "saw headlights swing around. Then a ball of fire shot 50 feet into the air."

According to sheriff's deputies, the eastbound car, driven by Rosalee Ann Bragg, 21, Atwood, Ill., swerved back suddenly from a muddy shoulder and collided with a car driven by Joseph Bode Harmon, 38, Forsythe, Ill.

The dead included both drivers and all five passengers in the cars.

THE FINAL ASSEMBLY vote probably will come next Monday. If, as administration leaders confidently predict, the lower house adopts the bill, it will clear the way for submission of the entire program to the voters in the 1960 election.

The water bill, SB 1106 introduced at the governor's request by Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), came under heavy attack in Ways and Means from two legislators—one Democrat, one Republican—who criticized the principle of financing the massive water plan through a bond issue.

ASSEMBLYMAN BRUCE F. Allen (R-Los Gatos) said the interest rate on the bond issue, figured at 4 per cent over a 50-year period, would be $3,500,000,000.

"In other words, for every dollar you spend on construction, the taxpayers will have to repay three in interest," he said.

ALLEN, JOINED by Assemblyman S.C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante), argued that the water program should be financed the same way as the state builds its highways—through a "pay-as-you-go" program financed by direct taxes. "I urge that you finance a program that can be financed, otherwise you are going to fall flat on your face," Masterson said. But the appeals of Masterson and Allen fell on deaf ears in the committee.

UNIT DEACTIVATED AT MARINE BASE, MEN TRANSFERRED

TWENTYNINE PALMS — The First Anti-Aircraft Automatic Weapons Battalion was deactivated at the Marine base here this week in line with government orders chopping Marine Corps strength from 200,000 to 175,000 men.

Battalion personnel, who ranked high in base sports activities, will be transferred to new assignments elsewhere, base officials said today.

Weapons of the battalion were mobile .50 calibre machine gun and twin 40-millimeter anti-aircraft mortars.

Palm Springs City Council this week denied a request from O'Donnell Golf Club for a waiver of the business license fee, a move that apparently surprised them as much as it did the spectators and press.

With no preliminary discussion concerning it with the exception of a question — "Why is the O'Donnell business license waived?" — the council cast a 3-3 tie vote, thereby denying the application.

Councilwoman Ruth Hardy was absent. Unless the golf club appeals the matter and at a future meeting the request is approved, they stand to have to pay in the neighborhood of $300 for a business license.

Funeral services will be conducted in Tucson, Ariz., for Pablo De La Cruz, 39-year-old railroad section foreman who was struck down by a train at Thousand Palms Wednesday night.

De La Cruz died near the Southern Pacific Railroad section house, just west of the tracks near Ramon Road, where he lived with his wife and four sons.

He leaves his widow, Erlinda, four sons, Frank, 9; Albert, 5; David, 3½; and Dicky, 16 months; three brothers, in Phoenix, and three sisters in Tucson.

A native of Denver, Colo., De La Cruz had been a Thousand Palms resident for eight months and an SP foreman in Riverside County for eight years. He formerly lived in Tucson.

Funeral services will be conducted at Bring's Funeral Home in Tucson. Wiefels and Son Mortuary is in charge of local arrangements.

'YES' VOTE CAST BY MARY CARLIN ON BOND, PAYMENT

Councilwoman Mary Carlin today asked that it be pointed out to Desert Sun readers that she had cast an affirmative vote on the levy of a $7,500 bond and $500 payment into the street maintenance fund by Massey Rock and Gravel, contractors on the Vista Las Palmas job for the Alexander Construction Co.

The Desert Sun made an error yesterday in reporting that the vote was 5-1 in favor of the issue. The vote was unanimous.

'Worst Duty'

Knight Reflects On Appeal Cases

(Editor's Note: Following is the first of a two-part series on the reflections of former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight on executive clemency — which he calls the toughest part of the job — and his thoughts on capital punishment.)

By RON BURTON
United Press International

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, reflecting on five years and three months as chief state executive, said today the worst duty of the office was reviewing appeals for clemency from men sentenced to die.

"I'd bleed from every pore each time I went over a case," Knight said. "You realize that all you have to do is scratch your name on a piece of paper—you do it as governor about 20 times a day, anyhow—and a man can live."

IT'S A TEMPTATION to commute a death sentence," he continued. "A flick of my wrist, and I can let him breathe. I'd tell myself. And if you did, not many people would know."

Seventy-five to 90 per cent of the people sentenced to die are not well known, and their cases haven't been well publicized. The public really isn't deeply concerned with execution.

"Executive clemency appeals are strenuous and the toughest thing a governor has to face. The evening before the day of an execution isn't pleasant."

Knight said he commuted three death terms sentences to life imprisonment in the 20 to 25 cases he reviewed in office. He said he had some doubts about several cases but resolved them all and is proud that there never has been new evidence in any case which, as he says, he "let go."

Knight said pros and cons of capital punishment didn't enter his consideration of executive clemency although he favors capital punishment.

Knight, now living in a Los Angeles apartment with his wife, Virginia, took time out from a busy schedule of speeches and getting resettled to recall his inner man struggles with death sentences.

"I was always deeply concerned over this great power in the hands of one person," he said. "You're a court of last resort. You can give back property but not life, and when you've rung this bell, you can't unring it. I never treated it casually, and while I'm not infallible, I've had no regrets about my handling of it."

Hawaii Cultural Center Planned Under Saund Bill

Special to The Desert Sun

WASHINGTON, D. C. — East is east and west is west but the twin will start meeting — on cultural and technical levels — if a bill introduced today by Congressman D. S. Saund gains approval.

The bill, introduced simultaneously in the Senate by Senator Lyndon H. Johnson, calls for the establishment of a center for cultural and technical exchange between East and West in Hawaii.

Saund said that the bill is in "complete harmony" with his thinking. The India-born representative said:

"This great institution of learning in the Hawaiian Islands will accomplish... great purpose by serving as a meeting place for students nurtured on Western ideas and ideals and students whose intellectual heritage is rooted in the age-old wisdom of the East."

The first college in the world chartered to grant degrees exclusively to women was the Georgia Female College, which was established in Macon, Ga., in 1836 and is now called Wesleyan College.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: Should you let a man hold a kiss more than three seconds? If you have been seeing a lot of a man for over a year and he holds you in his arms and kisses you goodnight several times but has never told you he loves you (only that he thinks a lot of you) should you tell him you love him? I'm no teen-ager. I'm a widow, 33 years old and I'd like to know the answer. He's altogether different than my husband was.

NEED TO KNOW

DEAR NEEDS: The game is the same and so are the rules. Only the players are different. Don't tell him you "love" him until he tells you first. If the best he can do is tell you he "thinks a lot of you" — three seconds is long enough to hold a kiss — then break the connection.

DEAR ABBY: My niece came here from France last December. She is 24. She met a young American on the ship coming over and they've kept steady company ever since. This man is 26. When they date, they stay out practically all night. He's studying to be a doctor and emphasizes it will be 3 or 6 years before he can marry. I think he's trying to get rid of her. I told her if she got a job and helped him, they could marry, but she said she didn't come here to work. Her visa is up in June. She wants to extend it. She does not help me in the house. Only eats, sleeps and goes out. What would you tell this lazy, unappreciative girl?

AUNT E.

DEAR AUNT: "Bon Voyage!"

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I were married we were a "cute little couple" but fifteen years and four children later neither is so little any more. The trouble is, he weighs over 200 pounds. He eats constantly and is always nagging me to go on a diet. He says it doesn't matter how fat a MAN gets, but it looks terrible on a woman. Can you beat that? I'd be willing to go on a diet if he would. Could you give me any suggestions?

Massachusetts was the first state to impose a closed hunting season for the protection of deer. The plan was first instituted there in 1693.

Three to Attend CSEA Meeting In Santa Monica

Three delegates from the local chapter of California School Employees Association will attend a CSEA convention in Santa Monica, July 12 through 15.

Funds for the delegates were secured through proceeds from a special dinner dance and "white elephant" auction staged at the high school cafeteria.

The successful program featured music played by a band of chapter musicians.

Musicians were Gustave Patzner, trombone; Ed Hamun, accordion; George Scholl, piano; Larry Foster, drums; Savino Jurado, saxophone, and Cliff Warner, trumpet.

Legislative caucus was first used in Rhode Island in 1790. By 1796 it was in use in all the states then in the Union.

Hubnappers, Burglars, Car Clouters Have Busy 24 Hours

Hubnappers, burglars and car clouters were hard at work in Palm Springs this week.

Police today reported that four Village vehicles were the targets for hub cap thefts and one car clout over a 24 hour period.

Thieves took a total of nine hub caps belonging to Fred E. Hook, of 372 South Belardo; Richard Lowry, of 1460 Buena Vista, and John Saben, of Thousand Palms.

ARTHUR PORTO, of 275 East Tamarisk Road, told police he looked out his bedroom window last night to find a man rifling his auto.

Porto shouted and the prowler ran, taking a suitcase loaded with about $30 worth of clothing belonging to the Villager's 12-year-old son.

Fourth of July Fireworks Program Splendid Local Summer Feature

There are at least three excellent reasons why the annual Fourth of July fireworks program and local Independence Day celebration should be strongly supported and continued in Palm Springs.

One of the most needed things in America today is a revival of genuine patriotism with all of its old time fervor of true thankfulness and appreciation for the many great blessings bestowed upon us as a nation.

No other national holiday is so meaningful or as moving in rekindling the spirit of individual pride and loyalty as the observance of the birth of the United States with its fireworks providing the "bombs bursting in air, 'neath the rockets' red glare" in hallowed tribute to both Flag and Country.

Thus fireworks and the Fourth of July have become an inseparable tradition in America's most memorable observance, rekindling the fires of patriotism in adults and passing on the hallowed torch of liberty to the youth and younger children of today.

In Palm Springs during recent years the annual Fourth of July fireworks program has grown into by far the largest event of the summer season. Under the leadership of the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation and financial assistance of practically all other civic and fraternal groups in the community, the local celebration of Independence Day has established a reputation as being one of the outstanding observances on the West Coast.

This in turn has done much to dispel the mistaken idea of many persons from other localities that the desert region is largely deserted in summer. The great crowds and activity locally on the Fourth of July provide splendid publicity for the community at a time of year when it is most needed. That it has been effective is attested to by the fact that each year finds greater numbers of people discovering that modern refrigeration and a plentitude of swimming pools contribute to comfortable living in the desert even during the dry and healthy heat of summer.

As a promoter of national patriotism, as a splendid summer program for the thousands of local residents, and as an outstanding event which brings the community much favorable attention far and near, it behooves all civic-minded groups and individuals to pitch in and help the Junior Chamber make the forthcoming Fourth of July celebration in Palm Springs a signal success.

May this year's observance of our nation's birthday be the largest and best ever held here.

What Ails the Foreign Ministers?

AUTO-BORNE IN GERMANY — "It never killed anybody yet," said Dr. Clarence W. Couchmaster, the international psychiatrist, as he stepped off the plane from Geneva. "There's every reason to think that the Big Four foreign ministers will live out their natural lives."

Dr. Couchmaster had been examining Messieurs Herter, Lloyd, Couve and Gromyko? He found them all suffering from the same psychosis?

"All suffering in simultaneous agony," nodded Couchmaster with professional sang-froid. "All sure that they would never see the light of tomorrow's sun. But, as I say, Messieurs Herter, Lloyd, Couve and Gromyko will die of what ails them in Geneva."

WOULD THE LEARNED doctor mind telling the press what ailment had seized all the Big Four foreign ministers at once? "Not only do they fear for their own demise," said Couchmaster, ignoring the plebeian ignorance of the shoe leather reporter. "It is characteristic of this particular psychosis that the sufferers fear for the demise of two billion others."

Two billion? That would be roughly the population of the world?

"Elephantiasis of the ego," is often a side result of this particular psychosis in foreign ministers," continued Couchmaster. "I don't suppose anybody since the envoys of King Nebuchadnezzar quite escaped it. Prophets in the Old Testament were always forecasting the end of the world — a typical symptom of what ails the typical foreign minister."

IN PLAIN JOURNALESE — was Dr. Couchmaster saying that the occupational disease of Messieurs Herter, Lloyd, Couve and Gromyko was exaggerated self-importance?

"I am saying," said Couchmaster severely, "that self-importance is a side result of the main affliction. But one must be very sympathetic about this inflation of the ego. I never saw a reporter who didn't think his next deadline was more vital than an eclipse of the moon or any other cosmic phenomenon. So one must be quite tolerant of foreign ministers who invariably think that the future of the world hangs on their every decision."

Would Dr. Couchmaster mind starting all over again? What was this main affliction which had beset the Big Four at Geneva? And how did King Nebuchadnezzar get into this conversation, anyhow?

"LET'S TAKE the last query first," said Couchmaster. "If memory serves, or even if it doesn't, it seems that there was a fly which perched itself on the wheel of the conqueror's chariot. The fly reasoned that it was the force which turned the wheel and, therefore, the reason why the conqueror had won his battles and, hence, the prime cause in the course of history. But the fly had a very limited and self-oriented viewpoint. There were a good many other forces to turn the wheel, and reasons for the outcome of battles, and causes for the flow of history."

Well, Dr. Couchmaster had lost this reporter a long way back. Why didn't he just give a name to the disease which had seized the Big Four ministers and caused Dr. Couchmaster's hurry-up light to Geneva?

"OBSCURANTISM," SAID Couchmaster briefly. "Like the fly on the King's chariot wheel, the average foreign minister suffers from the side result of self-importance but the principal disease is a related tendency to make his problems seem more complicated than they are."

Now we were getting somewhere. "Obscurantism," continued Couchmaster, "takes the form of a secret meetings and long sessions, followed by unnecessarily intricate press releases and the like. At no time has any of the Big Four confessed to the basic simplicities of their problem."

Such as?

"IN THE SIMPLEST terms," said Couchmaster, "the ministers are squabbling over the spoils of war. The World War II victors conquered Germany and captured Berlin. They divided it among them. They've been quarreling over this booty ever since."

But wasn't Dr. Couchmaster forgetting all the economic, ideological, diplomatic and philosophical matters that hung upon this Geneva Conference?

"NOPE," SAID Couchmaster. "Messieurs Herter, Lloyd, Couve and Gromyko, not to mention the heads of state back home, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the pundits and other assorted hand-wringers. If we hadn't made allies with the British, French and Russians, and if we hadn't beat up the Germans, the Big Four wouldn't be butting their swollen heads over these conference tables."

But the Big Four can't bring themselves to put it that simply?

"Such is the nature of their occupational psychosis that they have to make everything complicated and obscure," said Couchmaster. "It is a troublesome disease—but never fatal."

Quotes from the News

WASHINGTON—Rep. Charles O. Porter, D-Ore., proposing U. S. recognition of Communist China:

"It is pure wishful thinking to predict that Communist China will fall of its own dead weight."

WASHINGTON — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, on what his union would do if Congress passed a labor reform bill this year:

"The teamsters would comply with any law passed by Congress, reserving the right to work within the framework of that law to their best advantage."

WASHINGTON — Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) on an administration-backed move — defeated in the Senate — to slash 150-million dollars from 1960 soil conservation payments: "I'm willing to balance the budget by taking it (money) for the conservation subsidies out of foreign aid if I have to choose, I'll vote for the United States."

WASHINGTON — The State Department, accusing the International Olympic Committee of bowing to Communist pressure in ousting Nationalist China from membership and opening the door for admission of Red China:

"This is a political and discriminatory attitude, which has no place in the world of sports."

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, on the possibility of anti-semitism being injected into the Senate fight over the nomination of Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce: "We have here a man of the highest type of character, ability, who devoted many years of his life to public service, and to see such a false charge thrown at him in order to belittle him or hurt him would be very bad, very sad, I think."

WASHINGTON — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), urging enactment of a six-point program to use surplus crops to help needy and under-nourished families:

"Repeatedly the Department of Agriculture has asserted a reluctance to use surplus food stocks to feed the hungry. The department — perhaps justifiably — takes the position that it is not in the 'welfare' business."

This Side of The Sun By Phat

I've got an idea From TV That could mean A big rest for me.

Many of my favorite television programs are having their farewell appearances. That is, they are laying off for the summer. "See you in September — or October —" is what they say.

THEY ADOPT one of two lines.

Either they introduce summer replacements or just take off. It's the latter class that gave me the idea.

They have no summer replacements so on their regular hour during the summer months they repeat some of the shows presented during the winter.

Like the "Best of Groucho" and so on.

WELL, I TRIED to get a summer replacement.

Propositioned George Laine, that eminent music, drama and ballet critic.

First he scoffed, then he seemed irked at the idea.

"I've got enough to do," he said. "Besides, I've got to mastermind that sports page which you looked after in a dilatory, off-hand sort of way when you could get your mind off horses and women."

SO, WITH NO replacement, the second TV plan appeals to me.

Why not just go "eeny, meeny, miny mo" with the columns squeezed through this old Woodstock (at the beach) or the Underwood (at The Sun office) during the past few months, and where "mo" happens to light, send it back to the composing room as "The Best of Phat."

THAT IDEA, which I thought was a good one and a great labor-saving device, was derailed before it even got a good start.

Mr. Kenneth O. Brott, an omnivorous reader if ever there was one (Playboy to Nietzsche) smacked it down. He got the best of Phat.

"Best is the superlative of good. Nothing can be best unless it is good first. You could play a wider field if you picked the worst, which is the superlative of bad," he said.

Which remark, I hold, runs contrary to the spirit of true brotherly love.

NOTE WHERE the county is considering a law to license all dogs in unincorporated areas. Well, that's all right with me. It equalizes things. We have to pay a sales tax on our pants, don't we?

But that again raises the question—why not license cats? They are noisy at certain times of the year, too.

MAKE THE LICENSE tag in the form of a bell. So that the birds have fair warning.

Not that I pay dues to the Audubon society. In fact, I can't spell "ornithologist" first crack out of the box.

The only bird-watching I do is on Thanksgiving Day.

Outside of two eggs — any style — for breakfast, I can leave the birds alone. The cats ought to, too.

Cats, however, have a good lobby so I had better shut up before being shut up.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

We know a lady who is about to be a bride and nothing can be more exciting.

There is something peculiar about about-to-be brides. They set up an area of static electricity or something. When a lady is about to be a bride, every other lady begins to twitter. They get nervous and jittery. Sometimes even irritable.

"We must send them a wedding present." This remark is flung out of a rattle of paper, the remarker leading rapidly through those front gift pages of Harpers Bazaar.

"SEND THEM a fish knife." That is my answer to weddings. I send a silver fish knife. It is beautiful and useful—unless you have a terrible hankering for fish.

Decorative, useless things are what brides expect at their weddings. That is my opinion.

WELL, NO, IT seems we cannot send a fish knife. (Why not? Well, you just CAN'T, that's all. And stop shouting! It makes me nervous.)

"Send a camel saddle — the ones you use to sit in front of TV."

"We sent one of those to the Whipsnappers." "What of it? Send another. Maybe we could get a rate and buy them by the dozen."

Anyway, I can tell you a camel saddle will never do.

There is a perfectly darling antique doorstop with Paul Revere's forge stamp on it. A copy, naturally. But it is only $3.50 and could have cost $20 if you hadn't look at the ad.

BUT SHE PROBABLY saw the ad. She takes the magazine, I know.

The $3.50 doorstop is out. Paul Revere, back on the horse.

Who would use a doorstop, anyway? If you want to prop a door open, you can do it perfectly well with an old brick.

I do not make remarks like this, I think them. I USED to make remarks like this. But no more. I am a gentile, parait knight.

WHEN I AM in social doubt, I turn to the social Miss Amy Vanderbilt. Miss Vanderbilt wrote a book of 665 pages on complete etiquette. She is a social pistol and I couldn't get along without her.

"Never feel you must 'match the circumstances,'" says Miss Vanderbilt.

(She means if you are on the short and the bride is marrying in the chips, you don't have to give her a stained-glass window.)

"A FRIEND WITH taste who knows old glass or silver can give a present that will really be treasured and spend anywhere from $1 to $5 for it."

That is not a bad idea. We have some old glasses here. Beer glasses. I could wrap them up in a little tissue paper and get some fancy string and — No, I thought not.

THIS BRIDE is surely upsetting the neighborhood. Many phone calls roll back and forth. "Well, I THOUGHT of those tablecloths. And they're on sale, too. But Sally is going to give those. So I thought —" Chatter, chatter, chatter.

It seems the real problem, dear Amy, is this: We are not showing this stuff to the bride. We are showing it to her mother! Her mother will assess the presents like a pawnbroker.

THIS BRIDE is a $20 bride. That is, the present must cost $20. But what would really be the best would be a present that costs $5, but LOOKS like $20. See?

The trouble is, most of the $20 presents don't even look like $20. The way things have gone up lately. And we have to buy new clothes for the wedding. And that's another expense. And honestly, Amy, we don't know WHAT to do.

I MUST REPORT that I am remaining calm throughout this whole ghastly affair. Calm and cool and puffing on the old meerschaum. It is the season of brides. And soon it will be over.

Like oak moths and rose thrips and hay fever. We will probably give a fish knife. A fish knife always looks like $20. And it is a handy thing around the house. Especially when you have anchovies and the key on the can winds half way and breaks off. You can use the knife to spear the anchovies out.

So, You're Going to Europe?

NEW YORK—Everybody seems to be going on a European vacation — but Max Asnas, the Pastrami Plato, the Cornbeef Confucius, is going to California instead. "To me going to Europe is like doing nothing the hard way," says Seventh Av.'s greatest — in fact its only — philosopher.

"Not that I didn't have a good time when I went last year with Harry Hersfield," says Max, who's converting delicatessen into diamonds. "Every time they got out the red carpet for him, I was on the carpet, too. They gave him a police escort. In Russia the police used to chase me, now I was chasing the police."

"In the gambling places they made me wear a tie. They didn't care if I lost my shirt as long as I had a tie on."

Max took along 20 pounds of salami from his Stage Delicatessen. In one country he ordered some fish for dinner. It wasn't good. Afterward he presented the restaurant owner, a former New Yorker, with a chunk of salami.

"Tell me why," pleaded the grateful restaurateur. "If you had this salami, did you order my fish?"

Max will go to Hollywood—he will also be here making more money to give to Uncle Sam. "At that," says Max, "Uncle Sam's the nicest relative I've got."

Dave Garraway's show will give a featured spot tomorrow to Bud Travis, the funny folk singer who just closed at the Village Gate. One crack: "Here's a song from our big record—it's 42 inches wide." Also: "And now that old Irish folk song Guadalupe O'Hara."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Newman Paged for Role

HOLLYWOOD—Producer Milton Sperling is spurring Paul Newman to scam Broadway's "Sweet Bird of Youth" and star as the GI who steals the Japanese daughter-of-joy away from her Chinese Big Daddy in "Lovers' Point." Movie script is based on C. Y. Lee's novel of a few years ago. Lee also wrote the book for another Broadway hit, "The Flower-Drum Song," and the kicker is that Sperling was able to secure "Lovers' Point" from Lee for a paltry $25,000 — AFTER Lee had played his Manhattan trump card with "Flower-Drum."

Miss USA of 1958 will soon be Mrs. Paul LaCava. Arlene Howell set Aug. 8 as the date for her marriage to Paul.

LESS IN TUNE with June are those stories from New York about discords in the marriage of Ethel Merman and airline exec Bob Six. As one of their friends puts it, "The Sixes are all at sixes and sevens."

Well, well, well, if it isn't Gina L. for the leading role in Metro's "Lady L." And I do mean La Lollobrigida.

It's six-two-eight-even that Rhonda Fleming and Felix Feneel will make the Lohengrin scene after her divorce from Dr. Lew Morrell finalizes next Wednesday (June 12). He's the Swiss banker who has been romancing Rhonda ever since he met her at the Cannes Film Festival two months ago.

Lance Reventlow reports he ordered a new midget sports car from Europe — but it's been delayed in the mails.

LINDA DARNELL and her husband, Bobby Robertson, tried with Lindsay's hypnotherapist, Dr. Bill Kroger, at the swinging opening of Chicago songbird Vivienne della Chiesa and comedian Dick Shawn at the Coconut Grove. Vivienne's thrills trillin' and Dick's kookie comedy were both "The Verymost," meaning THE BEST.

Anna Maria Alberghetti arrived ringside at the Grove with Chuck Strauss and her "new nose" (she just underwent plastic surgery). She turned up the latter at her ex-fiance, Buddy Bregman, who arrived with dancer Elaine Dunn.

Charles Coburn, also among the Grove's elite Earth Children, swung around the dance floor so many times I lost count — and he'll be 82 next Friday (June 19)! I invited Charlie to come along with me to the preview of his new movie, "John Paul Jones," in which he plays Benjamin Franklin. He declined: "Thanks, but I don't like to see my movies with the professional. I'll see it later — with the proletariat!"

Addlepat by a startlet: "If he saw himself as others see him, he'd deny it!"

CHANNEL CHATTER — I asked a visitor from New York why Gypsy Rose Lee's local TV show back there bounced off the beam so fast, after only a few beamings. He replied, "Because the home viewers made the switchboard at the station lit up like a burlesque theatre marquee after every show with their indignant phone calls. Gypsy's writers seemed to think they were writing for the runway baldheads instead of for the home folk!"

The J's have it — looks like it'll be Joan, Jack and Judith (Collins, Lemmon and Anderson) as co-stars in Playhouse 90's sign-off for the season, "The Second Happiest Day." This, incidentally, will be Miss Collins' live teledebut.

PRODUCER BOB Fellows and director Tay Garnett shot a trenchcoat - type teleplot film titled "Hong Kong Collect" — in Tokyo. It stars newcomer John Reach. I asked Tay, "Why shoot 'Hong Kong' in Tokyo?" He replied, "Because labor is cheaper there and the scenery is almost the same."

Producer Prattle: "I'm gonna get out of this lousy show business for something with money in it — like leaning on a bank."

Okay, chillun, you can all relax now — Jim (Guns) Arness moved back to his Pacific Palisades palazzo to mind the kids while his estranged spouse plays "Blanche duBois" in "A Streetcar Named Desire" at Hollywood's Omnibus Theatre. Virginia, meanwhile, will live in Jim's Hollywood apartment during her legit hitch...

And does all this mean a reconciliation? Nope, it's the same old Hollywood we'll — always-be-good-friends dodge.

MAYBE I'VE BEEN seeing too many TV shows lately—anyway it strikes me that too many of them are entirely too long on talk and too short on action. Up and at 'em, men—and don't forget Scheherazade would have had her head chopped off if she hadn't stayed with the AC-TION!

His Richard Diamond series isn't being renewed so David Janssen is listening to producer Joe Schenck's scheme to switch from trenchcoats to leather jackets in a new series called The Racer.

The George Montgomerys sail to Europe aboard the Liberté Wednesday (June 17). Dinah Shore's ever-lovin' told me: "Dinah and Melissa (their daughter) bought 50 new gowns apiece for the trip. So that means it'll be strictly bluejeans for ol' dad."

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Ward of Redlands were recent guests of the Walter Markleys. The Wards were residents here for many years and have many friends in the desert.

Last week found many members of Shadow Mountain Club dining in the cool Indio Room, where dinners and cocktails are served every evening except Tuesday. Seen lately there were Ted and Marion Crane with Mrs. James O'Reilly, Charlotte and Everett Vonier, Hazel and Sam Arscott, Christine and Walter Markley with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ward, John and Ellen Moon, Hazel and Ted Thronson, Dorothy and Pete Pierson, Herb and Norma Shaw, Don and Lora Hunter, Mrs. Helen Walker, Mrs. Mildred Potter and guests, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sponberg, the Seth Howells, Dr. and Mrs. William Durnin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fox and son, Brian, Mrs. Barbara Carleton and daughters, Gail and Aleta, the Levan Saegers and guests, A. Ronald Buttons and guests, Ben Heflingers, the Howard Robinsons who have just recently returned from Santa Barbara, L. C. Lewis, Niles Howells and many more.

Miss Vicki Hartmez, 11-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harding, will take a European trip this year with her paternal grandmother. Her father will take her to New York and then return home quickly to be with Mrs. Hartmez who is "expecting." Mrs. Harding will be with her daughter while the family is away.

Mrs. Bob Coates is home after a ten day "stretch" in Casita Hospital. Helen injured her back and they had her in traction. Miss Edith Eddy Ward has been in Desert Hospital for a few days and so has Steve Chase. But they are both much better and will be home soon.

Day and Night Sessions Set By Supervisors

With adjournment deadline—on June 19—in sight, California legislators have scheduled day and night sessions in order to guarantee action on "must" bills, Assemblyman Lee Backstrand said in Sacramento today.

The 71st District Assemblyman said that in spite of the apparent rush, each matter is being given minute and careful attention.

"IT IS INEVITABLE that the deadline of adjournment should create a last minute rush of business, but I am sure that the many important bills that are pending will not be acted upon recklessly," he said.

Among the important legislation still on the agenda for legislative action are:

—A new tax structure with re-alignment of present tax.

—A POSSIBLE SOLUTION to the state's weighty water problem.

—Matters affecting the general economy of the state.

The assemblyman added that the measures will be included in the state's 1959-60 budget which is expected to be the highest in the history of California.

Highway 74 Right Of Way Asked By Supervisors

A resolution requesting the state highway commission to authorize relinquishment to the county of a 30-foot section of the state highway right of way along the south side of Highway 111 from State Highway 74 (Palms to Pines Highway) easterly to Deep Canyon Road at Palm Desert, was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation by the planning commission.

Planning Director Tyler Sues said the additional 20 feet is necessary to provide a proper frontage roadway with a paved section between curbs not less than 23 feet in width.

One ounce of atoms completely converted into energy would produce enough electricity to last a city of 500,000 for one year.

Fees for Burial To Be Studied

A notice to the Board of Supervisors from Slaughter, Schlesinger & Schlecht, attorneys for the Palm Springs Cemetery District, that unless the county adopts a policy of guaranteeing payment of the district's proposed charge of $92.50 for burial and endowment care, the district will undoubtedly adopt a policy of refusing to bury indigents, was turned over to Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen this week for study.

Slaughter said the district has been receiving only $25 for indigent burials, the $25 coming from $55 paid the mortician for his services. "The cemetery district directors feel that indigents are a burden to the entire county," he declared, "and costs should be apportioned throughout the county rather than on one mortician and one cemetery district."

County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan advised the supervisors that the rate to be paid by the county for

U.S. Population Up 3,077,000

WASHINGTON — UPI — The population of the United States was about 176,665,000 May 1, the Census Bureau estimated today. This was an increase of 3,077,000, or 1.8 per cent over the estimate for May 1, 1958.

Sixty-eight per cent of all people employed in the United States drive to work in automobiles.

SAUND REPORTS ON NEW TAX REFORM STUDIES PLANNED

Congressman D. S. Saund today reported that the House Ways and Means Committee will launch studies of proposed income tax reforms next fall.

Congressman Saund said that studies will begin next Nov. 2 on revision of the federal income tax, with a view towards chopping taxes for lower and middle income brackets.

SMALL BUSINESS operators also stand to benefit if the committee is able to institute a "constructive income tax reform" without sacrificing revenues required for financing of the government, Saund reported from Washington.

Saund was informed of the tax program by Congressman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee in the House of Representatives.

THE COMMITTEE, he said, has scheduled an extensive study "aimed at revision of the Federal tax system."

Tax experts from colleges and universities, research organizations and the fields of business, labor and agriculture will be invited to testify during the committee's future public hearings, Saund noted.

"The committee will investigate the practical possibilities of broadening the tax base sufficiently to permit significant reductions in individual and corporation income tax rates," Saund explained.

SAUND ADDED THAT the committee will also make an intensive study of the structure of the present tax system.

Particular attention, he said, will be directed at provisions enacted over a long period in the past to meet specific problems arising at the time.

Many of these provisions date back to the early days of World War II, Saund noted.

HOWEVER, THE Congressman from the 21st Congressional District cautioned his constituents to curb their impatience.

"One should not expect quick results from this study," he said. "Congressman Mills emphasized that constructive tax revision cannot be accomplished overnight."

"But it is my sincere hope that the study results in tangible benefits in the way that counts—money in the taxpayers' pockets," Saund remarked.

Gardening in the Desert

The average rye seed lawn is now beginning to weaken and wither under Old Sol's advancing heat. The Amateur Gardener will, if he is wise and economical, shrug his shoulders and wait until October for spreading next year's lawn. He could raise a Bermuda lawn but the labor, cost, and results make it not worth considering. There are many ground coverings on the market that might be considered, such as Lippia, Zoysia, Creeping Thyme, Chamomile and many others, but for lawns they are not satisfactory. Of these Lippia and Zoysia seem to have the slight edge, but from watching the results we must conclude they are not for Mr. Amateur Gardener.

DURING THE LAST few years we have watched Lippia lawns, one in Indio, raised by a gentleman who is conversant with desert horticulture and takes pride in his gardening. It lasted little more than a year despite proficient care. Lippia seems to do well in the summer's heat but turns brown in the winter weather. In the spring it shows tiny flower clusters, but as a lawn it cannot withstand rough usage.

To those who crave an all year lawn, have time to spare and can withstand a few disappointments, we would suggest planting Dichondra towards the end of June. Rake the old lawn clear of weeds, heavily work peat moss and rotted manure into the soil, level it off as much as possible, then irrigate for two weeks before spreading the Dichondra seed.

FOR QUICKER germination buy scarified seeds; they are a little more expensive but results will offset the expense. Spread seed when there is no wind; we would suggest marking the lawn in ten foot widths, seed each one separately and you should obtain equal spreading. When this is completed cover with peat moss to a depth of quarter to half inch.

Irrigate copiously with a light spray so as not to disturb the seeds or the covering peat. Keep the soil damp but not soggy and in a couple of months of the summer heat you should have a showing of Dichondra. It may be spotty and a little disappointing but stick with it. In October you might see the last year's grass pop up here and there; these you have to cut and by the end of the tourist season they will disappear entirely.

WE HAVE FOUGHT a Dichondra lawn for the last five years; at one time Bermuda seeds from an adjacent lawn almost took over entirely. This we fought and eventually won by digging out all the deep roots and spreaders, some to a depth of over six inches.

Don't let anyone talk you into spreading some clover seed with the Dichondra, supposedly to furnish nitrogen for the germinating seeds. We fell for this and two years later the clover took over and destroyed 40 square feet of Dichondra. Needless to say we are off clover.

Oxalis and other weeds have to be carefully watched and pulled out by the roots.

A DICHONDRA LAWN can also be raised from plugs of grown Dichondra, available in flats in local nurseries. These should be cut into plugs and symmetrically planted about six to eight inches apart in levelled off soil that has been treated as above.

We have found liquid fertilizers containing organic fish solubles and necessary minerals for fertilizing, and wetted DDT as an insecticide more efficient than a mixture of dry fertilizers containing pest killing material. When the Dichondra has eventually shown up use a lawn gun, a bottle that you attach to your hose—use wetted DDT first according to instructions, then the liquid fertilizer.

When these two chores have been completed irrigate immediately to wash the preparations into the soil. All in all the above sounds like a lot of work but we have found it very satisfactory despite the setbacks.

—T.G.M.

Sale Date Set For 900 Acres Of Airport

July 13 at 10 a.m. was set by the Board of Supervisors this week as the time for receiving bids on purchase of 900 acres of the Blythe Airport property together with a well and related equipment.

The minimum purchase price was set at $79,500 with terms requiring a minimum down payment of $25,000 with the remainder to be secured by a note and first trust deed to be paid in annual installments for a period not to exceed five years with interest at 5 per cent on the unpaid balance.

The supervisors authorized the advertising for bids two months ago when Airports Director Joe Marriott reported a tentative offer of purchase of the property which lies at the eastern end of the airport. Name of the would-be purchaser was not revealed.

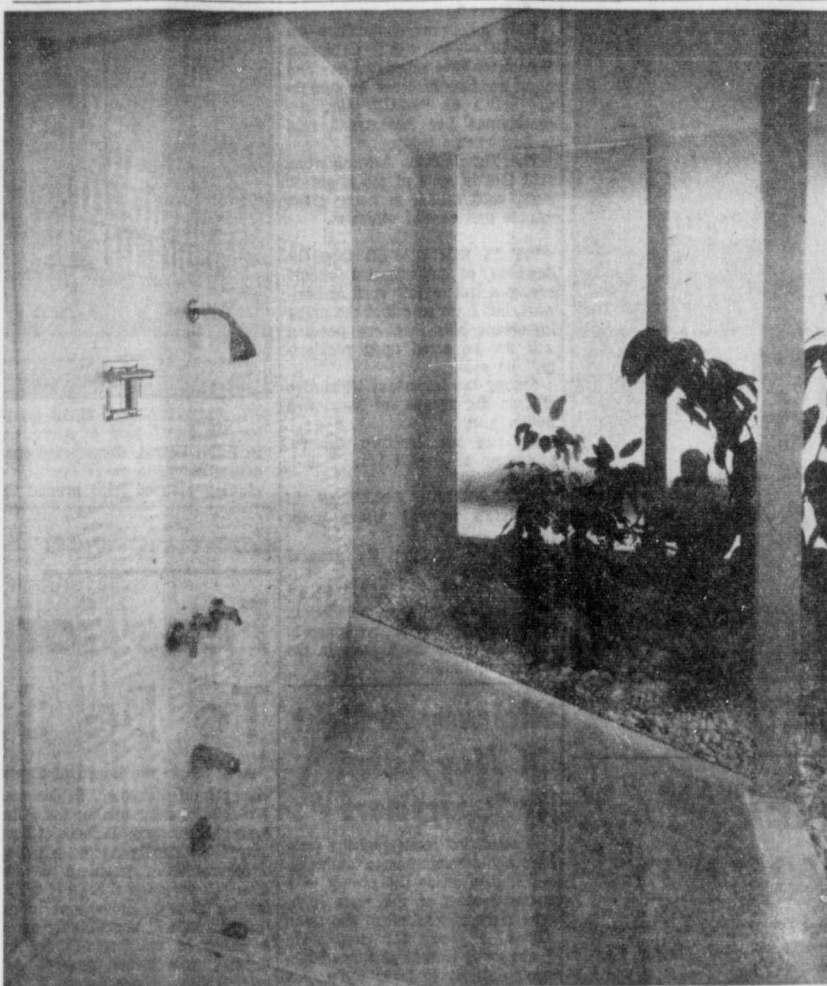

In its action the board included a provision that no bids will be accepted on any division of the property and another that the bidder shall agree to conduct an integrated agricultural research and processing operation on the premises.

Federal Savings Firms to Merge

The nation's largest federal savings association, with resources in excess of $500-million, will be formed in Los Angeles on June 30, when Standard Federal Savings and Loan Association and California Federal Savings and Loan Association merge their resources, officers and directors, and personnel under the name of California Federal Savings and Loan Association, it was announced today by George M. Eason and J. Howard Edgerton, presidents of Standard Federal Savings and California Federal Savings respectively.

Each of the associations has been in business in Los Angeles for more than a third of a century and together they have more than 300,000 savings and home loan customers residing in California and the other 48 states and 57 foreign countries.

ington, D. C., has seen fit to approve the proposal of merger as submitted by our respective boards of directors. Combining our two firms' operations is a logical consolidation and development of the long-range expansion plans of each association.

"Standard Federal Savings has operated since 1925 from a single location in downtown Los Angeles. On the other hand, California Federal Savings has, since its organization in 1926, developed a network of offices in the outlying communities of Reseda, Rancho Park, Lakewood, Hollywood, Granada Hills and Inglewood, with head offices in the Wilshire Miraloma area.

Court Battle on Sewer Problem Deadlocked 3-3

Pleading with the City Council not to buy a faulty sewer project, Councilman Leonard Wolf this week made a motion asking that the city hire the law firm of Slaughter, Schlesinger, and Schlecht to fight its sewer problem in court.

But Councilwoman Mary Carlin did not like the proposition, saying that she believed that the "city attorney should do the job. We pay him $930 a month to do our legal work, and if he can't do it, let's get another city attorney."

THE FIGHT OVER the sewer project involves the Anro Construction Company which constructed a sewer line on North Palm Canyon Drive.

The Sewer Advisory Committee, headed by Councilman Wolf, recommended that either Anro tear up four sections of line and relay them, or post a $8,500 bond for 10 years to guarantee against "root invasion" in the line.

COUNCILWOMAN CARLIN said that she could "not see putting out $200 a day for court appearances and $25 an hour for legal advice, when we have an attorney that could handle it."

Mayor Frank Bogert and Councilman John Wood backed Mrs. Carlin, which brought the vote to a 3-3 tie.

Councilman George Beebe moved that the matter be held over until the Monday conference meeting at the Chi Chi, at which time members of the Sewer Committee and the city's sewer consultant, Richard Pomeroy, be invited to attend. It passed unanimously.

Club Has Danish Visitor

Under desert stars and in a garden where bougainvillea blazed, a Soroptimist from Copenhagen met with sister Soroptimists from Palm Springs Wednesday evening at the home of Mexican-born Trixie Jarrette, new president of the Palm Springs Club, giving the meeting an international atmosphere.

The visitor, Edith Abrahamsen, is an authorized translator in French, and secretary to the Nordic Institute for Theoretical Atomic Physics. She works with Nobel prize winner Professor Niels Bohr, Ph. D., who is chairman of the Danish Commission on Nuclear Energy.

She has been in this country since March and finds it bigger than she had expected and more hospitable. Katherine Finchy, of the Palm Springs Club, had driven in to Los Angeles to bring Miss Abrahamsen to Palm Springs and commenting on this the visitor said she would be friendly to any strangers in her own country but wouldn't drive 125 miles to pick them up, adding whimsically, "I'd be out of Denmark if I did."

Sketching in the background of her own country, where four and a half million people live in 43,000 square kilometers, with one million of them in Copenhagen, she said most of them travel by bicycle.

She spoke affectionately of their Royal Family, and how the ancient laws of Denmark have been changed so the eldest of the King's three daughters, Princess Margrethe, may succeed to the throne as there is no male heir.

Speaking of her own Soroptimist Club (it's a suburban club as she said the Copenhagen club is too big), she told about some of its 33 members, one of whom is a member of Parliament, and another the conductor of a large orchestra. Because Denmark is "a kind of welfare state," with the government taking care of everything, Club service projects are not so munificent as those in this country, and she shed additional light on the situation when she explained that in Denmark there are taxes on charitable gifts and "it makes you less charitable."

Her Club entertains older people on Christmas night, she said, in line with the Senior Citizen program in this country, and started a kindergarten in Greenland, which has since been taken over by the government since its value was established.

"Life is easier in this country," she said, but there was a note of warning in her voice as she said it, for life in Russia is not so easy, she added, and the United States will have to work . . . and work hard . . . if it is to be first in space flights and similar contests.

She thought the big food markets amazing and most convenient (Danish must visit as many as five shops . . . all of which close at 5:30 . . . to do their family shopping) but mentioned that foods are two and a half times as expensive here. Many other things are to be had cheaper at home, so she will take back very few souvenirs in her luggage when she flies home the latter part of this month.

Her brief talk, which brought an interesting insight into the land of Hans Christian Andersen, followed a potluck buffet, which was enjoyed at small tables set up on the patio by the small waterfall. President Trixie Jarrette presided at a short business session, when it was decided to send the usual contribution to the Fireworks Fund, and to send a Palm Springs girl to Idylwild for a week at the Institute-Fiesta.

Mrs. Jack Copass, Auxiliary president, urges all members and those interested in this work to attend as plans will be announced for fund-raising events next fall.

THE NEWLYWED Tom Hulls (he's the noted hotel man and she's actress Lynn Starr) leave for the Orient next month on an around-the-world trip. They plan an extensive study of international cuisine during their visit to famous restaurants. The Hulls leave their Palm Springs home this weekend and will occupy a penthouse atop the Hollywood Roosevelt until their departure. (L. A. Todd Photo)

Adjoining El Dorado-Indian Wells Golf Courses

—G. W. "KIRK" KIRKWOOD

AT THE ALTAR of the Lutheran Church in Pasadena are Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Urban Ernst, who were married there in mid-afternoon of June 6. The bride is the former Margaret Amanda (Margo) Gerke, daughter of the Carl Gerkes of Sierra Madre, and was formerly associated with the now extinct Villager magazine in Palm Springs, as an artist. She and her architect husband are honeymooning in Paris, France and will make their home in Stockton. (Anderson Photo)

Flies East for Manhattan Visit

TWA's Jet flight out of Los Angeles transported Mrs. Minnie Sheppard (Sheppard's restaurant in Whitewater) to New York City for a week's stay. In New York she will join a friend, China Jones of Boulder City, Colorado, and the two women will attend the round-up show of the new fall fashions in a special showing by the clothing manufacturers for buyers. Mrs. Jones will make purchases for her own dress shop. While in New York they plan to attend several Broadway shows.

To a lady whose husband is about to buy their next fine car — We do not believe that your interest in cars lies only in how they look. Therefore we bring to your attention some of the womanly graces of a vehicle which combines fashion and function in a most unusual way.

Calculated Simplicity . . . length without bulk, size without mass. Eminently acceptable, totally assured. In colors thoughtfully keyed to the shades you'll be wearing through the year.

Implicit Obedience . . . to make you a dextrous driver. No other fine car steers as easily, handles as gently.

Heavenly Space . . . for hat, legs, feet. You sit gracefully, head-high, imperially straight. Interiors of glove-soft leathers, textured tweeds, custom-woven broadcloths.

Enchanting Gallantry . . . specially installed swivel seats turn gently doorward so you enter and alight gracefully, hat undisturbed, seams straight, hemline decorously in place.

Trusted Guardian . . . Auto-Pilot reminds you of the speed limit . . . and may be set to keep you at a steady pace, automatically, without a touch on the accelerator.

Fingertip Driving . . . pushbuttons move you forward and rearward. Pushbuttons control heater and air conditioner. Controls well in reach and self-explanatory.

We think you'll find such a car quite thrilling. It is immensely attractive, excellently tailored, finished, and appointed.

Its name is IMPERIAL. May we suggest that you and your husband compare it with the other two fine cars. We think you both will find the prospect of owning an Imperial delightful.

Peace and Tranquility is the theme for this artistic House and Garden setting. Architecturally only one of its kind in

Palm Springs. It's a Wing-shape plan with breezeway and connecting 24 x 24 garage. Precision built — You'll agree when you see the perfectly fitted

Cathedral beamed ceilings, solid brick fireplace wall and the charming wood shuttered folding doors separating den from living room, also two of the prettiest cottage-style bedrooms you ever saw. Oh, there's more, much more so call for your appointment early — the price of $21,950 might just be shaded to the right party, with terms to

Colony Ties for Lead

Prieto Hurls 14-1 Victory

Mexican Colony sluggers scored 13 runs in the first inning to walk off with a 14-1 victory over the Telephone Co. and tie the championship Biltmore team for first place in the Desert Softball League last night.

The Polo Grounds game was called at the end of four innings after the Colonists notched 8 hits while Pitcher Ben Prieto yielded only two — in the third frame — to the overpowered Telephone Co.

COLONY BATTERS tagged Pitcher Dino Di Grandi for six hits in the first frame, including home runs by Art Jurado and Prieto, to rack up 13 runs.

Colony Catcher Vic Reyes poled the lone homer in the second. Telephone batsmen were three up and three down for the first two innings as Prieto fanned four men. Tom Rafferty went on with a single in the third and came home on Bob Koolter's double to score the solitary run.

THE WIN SHOOKED the Mexican Colony into a tie for league leadership with the likewise unbeaten Biltmore. They'll face each other in next Wednesday night's game to settle the issue.

Last night's batteries: Ben Prieto and Vic Reyes for Mexican Colony, Dino Di Grandi and Larry Leheldt for the Telephone Co. Line score:

Tomy Lee Paces Handicap Field; Silky Ends Third

INGLEWOOD, Calif. — UPD — Kentucky Derby winner Tomy Lee's belated summer racing debut takes place Saturday when he leads a field of three-year-olds in the $50,000 Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park.

The mile and an eighth Cinema, final major prep for the $100,000 Hollywood Derby June 27, also is scheduled to bring out the filly star of winter racing, Silver Spoon to test Tomy Lee. Both have not started since the Kentucky Derby.

A crowd of 28,420 turned out Thursday to see Silky Sullivan try a stakes race for the first time in more than a year.

Ortiz Favored Tonight Over Kenny Lane

NEW YORK (UP) — In a betting switch, Carlos Ortiz today became a 13-10 favorite to beat southpaw Kenny Lane in their fight tonight for the revived, synthetic junior welterweight title.

The Madison Square Garden 12-rounder—the first fight for the 114-pound championship in nearly 13 years — will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

Until today, sandy-haired Lane of Muskegon, Mich., had been a slight favorite at odds that dwindled down to 11-10. Increased support for swarthy Ortiz of New York and Puerto Rico caused the switch.

The 12-rounder is a return bout. Lane, 27, won a majority 10-round decision over Ortiz, 22, at Miami Beach last Dec. 31. That was before Lane's manager, Slick Jack (Doc) Kearns, dreamed up the idea of resurrecting the 140-pound crown—for publicity and more loot.

Cervantes Wins

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Mexico's Bobby Cervantes, 129½, scored a one-count knockdown in the fifth round Thursday night and then continued strong for the rest of the fight to capture his second straight unanimous 10-round decision win over Chicago's Pete Kaula.

Hogan's Legs Are The Big Question

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (UPI)—His game's the same but the big question in the second round of the U.S. Open golf championship today was whether Bantam Ben Hogan's aging legs could carry him through four rugged rounds to an unprecedented fifth title.

Dead on his game on a course he knows so well, the 46-year-old Hogan fired 32-37—69 for a share of the first day lead with three 29-year-olds—PGA champion Dow Finsterwald, dead-pan Gene Littler, who always has been rated as another potential Hogan, and Dick Knight, whose claim to golfing fame is that he won the Northern California Open.

THEY ALL KNOW Hogan's golf. But not even Ben can be sure his legs can withstand the challenge of the younger guard closing in on him — or even that of the ever-flaring hopes of 47-year-old Sam Snead, who was four strokes off the pace.

Hogan shot what he called "as good a nine as I've ever played" in the 20-mile an hour wind which whipped the tough west course of the Winged Foot Golf Course Thursday when he played the front nine three under par.

HE DENIED HE tired on the second nine, but it looked that way when he bogeyed the 18th hole by three-putting from 35 feet.

"Funny thing, I'm back on putting," Hogan said. "But it sure didn't look like it on that 18th."

Ben had three birdies thanks to his putter, on that front nine but he had two bogeys on the back nine — the other being at the 212-yard par three 13th where it looked like he hit a perfect tee shot. The wind carried it into a trap, however.

THAT WIND MADE it tough for most of the field of 149 golfers and only Hogan with those three 29-year-olds were able to break par. Hillman Robins, who won the U. S. Amateur title in 1957 and is playing his first year as a pro, matched par at 70.

There were a host of 71's—including two-time Open winner Cary Middlecoff, Mike Souchak, Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper, Don January, Lionel Hebert, Ted Kroll, Bo Wininger, U. S. Amateur king Charley Coe, Doug Ford, Al Balding were among 10 in the 72 bracket. Defending champion Tommy Bolt had a 75 and complained not about his game, but because "so few spectators followed us."

Feeling Sorry for Pierce? Take a Look at Pascual

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
That's two no-hitters. Washington now has 10 used up for Billy Pierce but if you think he's pitching in tough luck, get a load of poor Camilo Pascual.

Pierce, at least, wound up with a one-hitter as the first-place White Sox beat the Senators, 3-1, Thursday night.

PASCUAL, HIS mound opponent, wound up talking to himself after losing his third straight game with two out in the ninth inning.

One look at the log of Pascual's last three losses is enough to convince anyone the Washington right-hander is the No. 1 candidate for the hard-luck pitcher of the year.

He had the Yankees shut out with two out in the ninth on May 31 when Bill Skowron beat him with a three-run homer. Last week, the Tigers also beat him with two out in the ninth, and Thursday night Jim Landis beat him with two out in the ninth by hitting a two-run double.

So Pierce really has no complaints.

ROCKY COLAVITO, still going strong after his four homers Wednesday night, doubled home the winning run in the eighth inning Thursday night to boost Cleveland into second place with a 2-1 triumph over Baltimore. The Athletics dumped the Yankees back into second division with a 9-5 licking and the Tigers ripped the Red Sox, 8-1, in other American League games.

POWERFUL NEW LIGHTS which are used to light the golf driving range at Indian Wells Country Club are checked by manager-pro Eddie Susalla. Many desert area persons are going to the country club in the evening to practice golf on the range which is lighted some 400 yards deep and another 400 yards up the mountain. There are three weekly golf tournaments being held at the course, a twilight Choose-up on Thursday; on Saturday and Sunday a breakfast choose-up, and on Sunday evening (4:30), Scotch Foursome play. The new air-conditioned clubhouse is open for the summer and Indian Wells is the only golf course in the desert open day and night for golf. (Desert Sun Photo).

Red Sox Place Lead on Line

The Red Sox, tied with the Tigers for first place in the Minor League with 2-0 records, will meet the once beaten Yankees in opening action at 7 p. m., tonight, at the Rodeo Grounds.

The second game at 8:30 will find the once beaten Cardinals meeting the twice defeated Giants. Sponsor of Minor League play this year is Henry A. Samsarian.

JayCees to Hold Golf Tourney

Past and present members of the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce will line up for the annual JayCee golf tournament at O'Donnell Golf Course this week end.

More than 100 JayCee golfers are expected to show up for tee-off time at about 8 a.m., Saturday. The two-day tournament features individual matches Saturday and Scotch foursomes with JayCees and their wives Sunday.

A picnic and awards program at Tamarisk Park follows Sunday's golfing, according to Dr. John Lake, tournament chairman.

Both Saturday and Sunday golf cards will cover a full 18 holes. Refreshments will be served by the JayCees.

ROTARY MEETS LEAGUE LEADERS

Second-place Rotary Club sluggers face the league-leading Hathaway-Palm Canyon Market Braves in the nitecap of a Little League doubleheader at the Polo Grounds tonight.

The Rotary baseballers hope to chop away a one-point lead in League standings held by the hard-hitting Braves.

IN THE FIRST game of tonight's twin-bill action, Palm Springs Water Co. meets Lincoln-Mercury in a battle for third place.

Palm Springs Water currently holds a two-point lead over fifth-place Lincoln Mercury.

Both teams met defeat in Monday night's Little League action. The PS Water squad lost to Junior Police, 15-11, putting the JP's in fourth place, and Rotary clobbered Lincoln-Mercury 25-2.

HATHAWAY CURRENTLY holds 11 points for five wins and one tie. They have one loss. Rotary runs a close second with 10 points for five wins and two losses.

Palm Springs Water Co. has six points and a win tonight can bring Lincoln-Mercury up even from four points.

MONDAY'S TWIN-BILL, featuring the Junior Police vs. Hathaway and Rotary vs. PS Water, has been postponed until Saturday, June 20, so the Little Leaguers who are Desert Sun carriers can travel to Disneyland.

Game times are 7 p.m. for the first game and 8:30 p.m. for the second.
